

APPLICATION FORM – PROOF OF ABORIGINALITY

The Proof of Aboriginality Form on page 4 is a statutory declaration that forms part of a request for Proof of Aboriginality from the Congress Board of Directors in accordance with the Congress Board Policy, Confirmation of Aboriginality 2018.

The Congress Board of Directors assesses requests using the following criteria:

1. That the applicant is of Aboriginal descent;
2. That the applicant self-identifies as an Aboriginal person; and
3. That the applicant is accepted as such by the community in which the applicant lives or formerly lived by reference to the Central Australian locality requirement (including that the applicant or their family are known to a Director).

Eligible applicants must be from Central Australia by reference to one of the below locality requirements:

1. The applicant must be from Central Australia and still currently living in Central Australia; or
2. The applicant must be from Central Australia or have lived the majority of their life in Central Australia but is currently living elsewhere; or
3. The applicant's family must be from Central Australia but the applicant has not lived in Central Australia.

In cases of stolen generation or disconnection from family, the Congress Board of Directors will consider applications that provide clear supporting documentary evidence (from Link-up or other such family history or reunification services) that confirms family heritage is Aboriginal with links to Central Australia.

TO MAKE A REQUEST PLEASE PROVIDE THE FOLLOWING:

1. The applicant's details page 2

2. An explanation as to how you, or the applicant if applying for a child, meet the Central Australia locality requirements on page 2

If you are applying on the basis that your family are from Central Australia but you have not lived in Central Australia (No. 3 of the Central Australian locality requirements), please provide a letter of support confirming your family links to Central Australia from a prominent Central Australian Aboriginal person (who is not a relative) or a current Congress Director, who is known to you or your family or provide Link Up documentation.

3. Complete the family tree on page 3
