Who we are

Congress has over 40 years' experience providing comprehensive primary healthcare for Aboriginal people in Central Australia.

Our services

Our services target the social, emotional, cultural, and physical wellbeing of Aboriginal people.

These services include:

Gap, Sadadeen & Larapinta Clinics

providing a range of medical care for Aboriginal people living in those areas.

Alukura Women's Health Service

providing a wide range of medical services caring for women's and baby's health.

Ingkintja Male Health Service and a Men's Shed providing care for men's health and wellbeing.

Child & Family Service

providing care for Aboriginal children and their families; helping children to develop and learn in the critical early years.

Social & Emotional Wellbeing Service

providing care to improve the wellbeing of Aboriginal people of all ages.

Remote Health Services auspicing the delivery of health care services in nearby Aboriginal communities—Amoonguna, Santa Teresa, Ntaria, Utju and Mutitjulu.

Our members

Congress is an Aboriginal community controlled primary health care service. This means we rely on our members to keep us informed about the needs of our local Aboriginal community.

To be a member, you must be:

- Aboriginal
- 18 years of age or older
- A resident of Central Australia, having lived in Central Australia for the two years prior to applying for membership.

By being a member of Congress, you can have a say in the way we deliver our services
